

OLD JUDGE RUMHAUSER

BY TAD

MORAN VALUES HIMSELF HIGHLY

Puts Too Strong a Price on His Services in the Pugilistic Ring.

By RINGSIDE.
New York, June 2.—Frank Moran is enjoying all the prosperity of a ring champion, despite the fact that he is only a mediocre heavyweight. Also, Francis possesses some of the qualifications of present day title holders, notably a disinclination to meet logical opponents.

His recent unpleasantness with Jess Willard has spoiled Moran. Frank received a check for $15,000 for taking a 15-round pasting, and the size of that purse has apparently turned Moran's head. It has also dimmed his vision, for Frank can see nothing less than $25,000 whenever a fight is broached, regardless of the status of his proposed opponent.

Moran was offered $15,000 to engage Carl Morris for 15 rounds. Morris, at least, is a third rate heavyweight, yet Moran looked upon this flattering offer contemptuously and demanded $25,000. As a result negotiations were dropped.

Only a few weeks ago Moran signed tentative articles for a 19-round mass with Jack Dillon in this city. Moran's demand for $20,000 for his end was granted, and the match finally seemed to be closed. But now Moran repudiates the articles.

And less than two years ago Moran put barely his expenses for fighting Jack Johnson 20 rounds! Prior to that bout Moran was lucky to pull down several hundred dollars for his hardest fights.

Of which speaks well for the sagacity and shrewdness of his manager, the Dorgan. But these tactics are not making Moran popular with the fight loving community. At the same time, Moran is likely to find himself not so much sought after by promoters, and as a consequence, his popularity will wane, and the price for his appearance in the ring will greatly diminish.

RIVAL OTERO CANDIDATES

IN FRIENDLY JOINT CAMPAIGN

Alamogordo, N. M., June 2.—R. S. Tipton and J. M. Helm, both candidates for the office of superintendent of schools, the Democratic ticket, have been traveling together and campaigning in perfect harmony, for the purpose of securing votes for themselves respectively, and for the further purpose of getting the matter squarely up to the voters.

Mr. Tipton's argument is that he has held the office for five years, therefore he is thoroughly familiar with the work, and better qualified to manage the affairs of the office. Mr. Helm advances the argument that the present incumbent has had the office long enough, therefore another man should be elected to serve during the next two years.

SPECIAL TRAIN ARRANGED

FOR FERGUSON'S WACO TRIP

Austin, Tex., June 2.—When Gov. James E. Ferguson goes to Waco to make his opening speech for reelection and give an account of his stewardship on June 10, he will travel in a special train, accompanied by several hundred of his friends and supporters, plans for the special having been completed.

BRITTON HOLDS CHAMPIONSHIP

Is Entitled to the American Title But Cannot Claim World Honors as Yet.

By T. S. ANDREWS.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 2.—After an uphill fight for the past three years, Jack Britton, a Chicago lad, has finally landed a championship—the welterweight title of America. For a long time the welterweight crown was kicked about with no legitimate holder until Ray Bronson of Indianapolis lay claim to it and defended the same, retiring himself about three years ago. It was taken up by "Kid" Graves of Cleveland and claimed the "Kid" appeared to have the best of it as far as claiming goes. He also showed his sincerity by putting up real coin to defend the title he claimed.

Graves was defeated in no-decision bouts by Britton and Ted Lewis, according to newspaper accounts, but from a sporting standpoint they did not count seriously. Then came Eddie Moha of Milwaukee, who won from Graves on a foul in 11 rounds, at Dayton, Ohio, and he laid claim to the title, but was not generally recognized.

Ritchie Had No Claims

Ted Lewis also claimed it, as did Jack Britton and Willie Ritchie. The latter had no right to claim it as he never fought for the title. In the meantime Britton and Lewis got together in a real, straightforward championship match at New Orleans, and Britton was awarded the verdict and he at once claimed the crown again. Ted Lewis knocked out Eddie Moha in 13 rounds at Dayton, so that puts Moha out of the running and all things considered, the Britton boy, whom Dan Moran has been pushing along steadily the past two or three years, comes into his own.

Can't Claim World Title

Daniel claims the world's title for Britton, but he cannot hold that honor until he fights for it and to date he has had no such match. To gain the world's title he would have to first defeat the European and Australian champions. However, practically all the critics have recognized him as American champion, and he deserves the honor. He is also ready to defend it against all comers in real matches, according to his manager, Dan Moran, which is more than can be said for a whole lot of managers.

Moran Will Stake Chance

There is one thing in favor of Moran—he will take a chance with his man against any fighter living—and he is not holding off for the entire receipts. During the past five months Britton has met some mighty good men, among them—Johnny Griffith, Ted Lewis (three times), Silent Martin, Kayo Brennan, Gid Graves. Just previous to the first of the year Jack had battled such tough ones as Mike Glover, Soldier Barrfield, Phil Bloom, Terry Mitchell and Young Denny. In all, Britton has had 152 matches since he started in 1905, and the one knockout he suffered was at the hands of Steve Kinney of Milwaukee, who put Jack to sleep in one round.

To Fight in South America

In 1913 Jack gave away considerable weight and put up a clever fight against Paddy McFarland in Milwaukee, and it did much to bring him to the front in the east. Britton and Ted Lewis have been matched for a championship bout in South America, at the same place where Freddy Felsch and Charlie White are supposed to meet in a battle for the lightweight title in

GREAT COLLEGE ATHLETE

July. Britton wants the weight set at 145 pounds, but he will have to change it to meet foreign title holders, as the weight in other countries for welter is 147 at 3 o'clock. Should Britton go to South America, it is likely that he will take a flier at Australia later on and meet the champion of that country, Albert Badoud, the Swiss champion, now in this country, claims the European title, so Jack may have a championship match without going through the war zone. All the followers of the game ask is that he defend the title when called on to do so by legitimate challenges.

St. Louis, Mo., June 2.—Philip de Cateby, a ball player who left K. L. Hodges' interests in baseball, took a slant at the American league standing the other day and then rushed to the nearest telegraph office. Please note what he wrote:

"Frieder Jones."

"Endicott Hotel, New York."

"There is $50,000 in bank at your disposal. If you want any ball players buy them."

(Signed) P. DeC Ball."

A letter was received from Jones in answer to that rather liberal offer. "I've got all the players I want or need," said Jones. "We'll get going soon and when we do, look out."

"I don't take a very deep interest in baseball other than to hope for victories," said Ball. "But I just wanted Jones to know that if money would do anything he could have the whole bank account. I'm sorely disappointed with the chink showing to date, but I haven't weakened, because Jones keeps telling me not to. I think Jones knows the game and I'm going to string along with him. Whatever he says is good enough for me."

A dollar saved by buying goods produced elsewhere is a dollar thrown at your neighbor's birds.
